

About Mr. Alwardt

Educational Background

- Master of Education – Marygrove College
- Bachelor of Arts – Western Michigan University
Major: English, Communications

Professional Experience

John Alwardt is a twenty year veteran teacher of the L'Anse Creuse Public School District. In his tenure as a teacher, John has taught various communication and English classes, including Advanced Placement Literature and Composition at the high school level. He has served as the English Department Leader, the K-12 Performing Arts Curriculum Coordinator as well as a member of the L'Anse Creuse Bargaining Team.

During the 2002-2003 school year, John was named Teacher of the Year for L'Anse Creuse High School-North and received the 2003-2004 Teacher of the Year Award for the L'Anse Creuse School District. He has also received recognition over the course of many school years from graduating seniors who named him as one of the Top-Ten Teachers at L'Anse Creuse High School-North. Recently, John was honored to be nominated by one of the IAM students as Educator of the Year for a contest sponsored by Teen Ink Magazine.

During the past seven years, John has taught a variety of education courses at Baker College. He has also been a presenter at various local and state-wide workshops for teachers.

Personal

John loves being husband to his beautiful wife and father to his three awesome children.

Hobbies

In his spare time, he enjoys reading, exercising, playing cards and traveling.